OBSERVATION

Here at Charity Hospital School of Nursing "Total Assessment" is an important component of the nursing process. It indicates judgement and decision and builds a foundation for a professional relationship between the student nurse and her patient.

IMPLEMENTING

Michelle Weber, tries to figure out what's that smell.

Who has the bad breath?

I found it first!

Implementation is performance, rendering appropriate patient care, and putting this care into action. Our nursing experiences from Freshman to Junior to Senior level intervene to assist in health and in illness, and mold our capabilities to extend beyond our skills.

Medical-Surgical Nursing II

"Medical-Surgical Nursing II is a third level course focusing on the care of hospitalized patients who are critically-ill and /or dying. It also focuses on the care of patients with complex problems. The care of these patients reflect the utilization of the nursing process with emphasis on the integration of the pathophysiologic, the pharmacologic, and the psychosocial processes. Students are assisted to think through the "why" of the nursing process. Emphasis is also placed on the care of groups of patients using the leadership and management concepts of team nursing. The clinical areas used for nursing experience include the general and special medical and surgical units, the intensive care areas, and the emergency room. Special efforts are made to correlate the course content and clinical experience through the use of both the inductive and the deductive method of teaching."

Aurora B. King, R.N.
MS II Course Coordinator

Community-Psychiatric Nursing.

Community-Psychiatric Nursing is a third level course offered to further the development of the students toward a beginning level of professional nursing experience. The course offers concurrent theory and nursing experience in community nursing and psychiatric nursing. The major focus of psychiatric nursing is establishing therapeutic nurse-patient relationships utilizing communication techniques, and understanding behavior—both normal and disturbed, and on implementing the role of the nurse in psychiatric care. The focus of the community nursing component is on the role of the nurse in health care systems other than in-patient hospital settings. Experience includes planning and implementing nursing care for patients and families in outpatient clinics, patient's homes, health centers, and other community agencies. Emphasis is placed on understanding the role of nurses in a team approach to health care in the community, including preventive and follow-up care. Upon completion of this course, the nursing student will have a better understanding of his/her own behavior, be more sensitive to needs of others, and have a greater comprehension of the conflicts human beings face in their daily task of living.

Medical-Surgical Nursing I

Medical Surgical Nursing I is a twelve hour course offered to students in the junior level. It gives the student nurse the opportunity to develop knowledge, skills, and attitudes essential to the nursing care of adult hospitalized persons with selected commonly-occurring health problems requiring general medical and surgical treatment. This course allows the student to further his knowledge obtained from Introduction to Medical-Surgical Nursing while preparing him for Senior Medical-Surgical Nursing. It does so by the guidance and information obtained from the instructor, and clinical experience in areas such as medical and surgical units, orthopedic units, operating rooms, and clinics at Charity Hospital. Upon completion of this course the student will have the ability to assess individual patient needs; correlate clinical findings with the knowledge of basic sciences and prescribed treatment; identify actual and potential problems of the patient; plan, implement, and evaluate care; while keeping in mind the importance of patient teaching—an essential part of nursing. With the use of the nursing process and obtained skills, the objectives of Medical Surgical Nursing I will be accomplished to allow the student to further his knowledge and skills in the Nursing Profession.

Maternal-Child Nursing

Maternal Child Nursing is a twelve credit hour junior course offering concurrent theory and nursing experience in maternity and pediatric nursing. It is designed to assist the student to participate in his educational process by acquiring knowledge of maternal-child care and specific disease entities; assessing, planning, implementing and evaluating nursing care in these specific areas. Clinical experience consists of giving guided nursing care to individual patients and their families. Students have direct contact with mothers, children, and families through clinics, hospitals, and other health agencies. The two-day clinical experience at Lakeside provides the students with the opportunity to observe the role of the father or other family members in a family-centered setting. The two-day clinical experience at volunteers of America, during the Pediatric rotation provides the students with an opportunity to observe and relate to well children outside of the hospital setting. Throughout their clinical experience they have the opportunity for helping in planning for continuity of nursing care for families, including the community aspects. During their clinical experience they are helped to gain beginning skills in health teaching for expectant mothers and young adolescents.

Intro. to Med.—Surg. Nursing

Nursing is a six credit hour course offered the second semester of the freshman year. Each student spends two mornings a week in the clinical area and three hours per week in class. Clinical experience is quite varied. Different types of experiences are provided: planned laboratory experiences; one week is spent in Minor Admit which is primarily an out patient setting; one clinical day is also devoted to a workshop which emphasizes the group method of instruction; and to further enhance learning, students rotate wards at mid-semester. Concepts discussed in lecture are implemented clinically, yet in pre-conference patients' diagnosis and nursing care is a point of emphasis.

Skills introduced in the course include medication administration, wound care, IV therapy (hanging bags, observation and regulations of fluid, and changing IV tubing), catheterization, irrigation of tubes, gavage, and suctioning.

At the end of this course those students who are successful will be prepared to enter Junior nursing courses, provided other requirements are met.

Intro to Nursing

Introduction to Nursing is a four credit hour course offering fifty-four hours of theory and sixty-four hours of nursing experience and pre and post conferences. The student spends one day a week in the clinical area where he/she is introduced to basic knowledge and skills necessary to care for a non-critically ill patient. Several medical-surgical units at Charity Hospital are utilized for clinical experience. The theoretical concepts introduced include the following: nurse—patient relationship, communication, health and illness, medical asepsis, vital signs, nursing process, Erikson's stages of man, Maslow's hierarchy of needs, hygienic needs, movement and exercise needs and spiritual, learning and nutritional needs, anxiety, safety, normal aging, legal aspects, death and dying, and community health care facilities. Nursing skills introduced include handwashing, body mechanics, AM care, observational skills, charting, range of motion exercises, catheter and perineal care, administration of enemas, cardio-pulmonary resuscitation, transcription of doctors' treatment orders, and calculation of out-of-date orders. Also by the end of the semester, the student has completed a process recording, a formal teaching plan and several nursing histories and care plans.

INVOLVEMENT

How do you get the APPLE CIDER out of here.

"Simon Says . . . "

You have a date with WHO?

Involvement of an individual to the greatest extent possible is important. It takes time, time to set aside the demands of school and enjoy and relax in the variety of activities that bring us together and to be a part of Charity Hospital School of Nursing.

Heartbeat of Charity

Volleyball Varsity Team

Linda Schexnaydre, George Bucher, Sue Jacques, Michelle Dupre, Judy Kilcoyne, and Melissa Breau show the trophy to the sponsor of the team at Pearlies.

Winners of the Intramural Volleyball Tournament display plaque with their names engraved on it—Merrill Townsend, Brenda Poche (Captain), George Bucher, Pam Geraci, and Peanut Ward.

The varsity team stands together to demonstrate their reward for this year's volleyball expertise.

REGISTRATION

Below: Day Branan helps at registration.
Below right: "You mean you haven't gotten all your initials?"

Registration is like getting out of bed in the morning. No one likes to do it but it's something everyone has to do.

Right: "You mean it's only $135.00?"

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE . . . THE DORM

Top left: Gaylan Martineau has "Betty Davis Eyes!"

Top right: Lottie Cantrell has learned the art of "studying the inside of her eyeballs."

Far left: Erin Wycoff keeps the fourth floor phone busy.

Left: Gwen Rodriguez says to Greg Jacob: "Don't you like to eat in the cafeteria?"

CAPPING AND BLACK BAND CEREMONY

"I walk all day long and sometimes I dance, but I can't appreciate dancing until I have experienced the ordinary feeling of walking. Tonight we are dancing." M. Maher

Mock Trial held on October 13, 1980 was a re-enactment of an actual trial. The case: negligence by staff at Happy Valley Hospital led to the wrongful death of Bo Bo Whitehurst from suspected anaphylactic reaction to penicillin therapy.

Below: Jury of twelve students found Sarah Kamp, RN, and Happy Valley Hospital guilty of negligence and Dr. Donkey Dolittle not negligent.

MOCK TRIAL

BACK TO SCHOOL PARTIES

The kick-off parties to welcome students back each semester were hot-dog roasts; one on the patio, and one on the 7th floor.

Top left: Margaret Thibodaux, Sharon Welcher, and Diane Catanzaro enjoy a cool drink.

Top right: Chef Pedersen diaphoreses over a hot grill.

Right: Par for the course for Chef Soileau.

Far right: Gloria Hallal rides a guest through the creaky corridors of the Haunted House.

Left: Maria Green happily tells Judy Silva and Nadine Jones that she finally completed her graduation sign-out sheet.
Below: Patricia Ross smiles as she anticipates graduation.

SENIOR PARTIES

At the end of every semester, the first semester seniors honor the graduating class. On December 17, 1980, the celebration was held at Pearlie's. On May 12, 1981, the bash was held on the sun deck.

Roxane Dunham gets the scoop on how to give a senior party from Sue Jacques and Judy Kilcoyne.

FALL FOOLISHNESS

Monday night football became Charity night football when the students rolled into the Superdome on November 24, 1980. The next night Charity students hit the River Road for a hayride and bonfire.

Below: Send Howard to Charity was our motto on the banner.

Right: SAINTS AIN'T!

Above: The crew huddles around the bonfire to keep warm.

Helping Hand

Students and faculty and staff united when Sandra Pardue's son, Danny, needed help to go to San Diego for medical treatment, and with matching Alumni funds, raised almost one thousand dollars.

ELECTION '80

In November the student body had its own presidential election and Charity elected Reagan with 46.20% of the vote. Carter received 39.31%, and Anderson, 8.28%; the other 6.2% was divided among six other distinguished candidates. The country followed Charity, giving a landslide vote to Reagan.

Jeanette Bailey, Trish McDermott, Fran Nelson, and Lori Monte cast their ballots.

Twice a year CHSN students get out their finest threads, call their favorite dates, and go with the flow—The Winter Formal was Nov. 8, 1980 at the Marriott Hotel; the Spring Formal was April 4, 1981 at the Hilton.

Right: Dianne Catanzaro shares the experience.

Far right: Judy Kilcoyne, master planner of both formals, and date.

FORMALS at their FINEST

Right: Students sing the "Cajun Twelve Days of Christmas" before acquiring the "Signs and Symptoms of Finals."

Far left: Gina, Kirk, and Lisa had the Christmas spirits.

CHRISTMAS COCKTAIL PARTY

December 12, 1980, the faculty and students got together for an informal Christmas party on the 7th floor of the Education Building.

PAT O'BRIEN'S NIGHT

On September 9, 1980, February 15 and May 14, 1981, CHSN Students were invited to "have fun" at Pat O'Brien's with two hours mixing and mingling.

S G A BANQUET

On April 29 the Student Government Association showed its appreciation to the members for their dedication to good government & leadership. The buffet was held at the Magnolia Plantation.

Left: Sally Cooper, Kirk Soileau, Missy Manuel, Mike Couvillon, Patty Lambert, and Joy Olivier toast to a year well done.

Right: "Don't you dare take my picture," Roxane Dunham jests.

Far right: "We have squatters' rights and no one is going to take this table away from us."

SHELTER NO. 3 AT THE LAKE

One of our favorite places to "get away from it all" is the Lakefront. By this shelter we have watched more sunsets, played more ball, thrown more frisbies, cooked more sausage and hamburgers, and peeled more crawfish than anywhere on earth.

Bonny Mikkelsen and her guest, Jimmy Strickland, stopped eating crawfish to pose for our cameraman.

Charity Night LIVE !!

CHARITY NIGHT LIVE

The special talents of many Charity students came to you live from the 7th floor on April 12, 1981.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET AWARDS PROGRAM

Top: Students and faculty sharing in the celebration are Aurora King, Sister Genevieve, Patti Lambert, Judy Silva, and Julie Foley.

Right: Faculty who enjoyed the Junior-Senior Banquet are Julia Spratt, Linda McCuiston, Gayle Barrau, Carolyn Buanacore, Hazel Winstead, Marylou Medlin and Joanne Redmann.

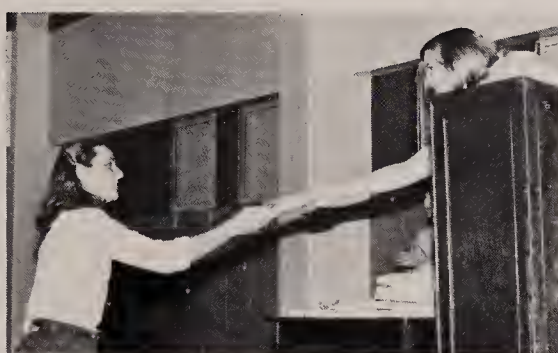

One of Charity's cherished traditions is the annual banquet honoring Juniors and Seniors. On May 6, 1981, the Bali Hai Restaurant at the beach was jumping as Juniors looked forward to becoming Seniors and Seniors looked forward to graduation.

A Grateful Song

For every hill I've had to climb,
For every stone that bruised my feet,
For all the blood and sweat and grime,
For blinding storms and burning heat,
My heart sings but a grateful song—
These were the things that made me strong.
For all the heartaches and the tears,
For all the anguish and the pain,
For gloomy days and fruitless years,
And for the hopes that lived in vain,
I do give thanks, for now I know
These were the things that helped me grow!

GRADUATION 1980

Yesterday a dream, today a commencement, tomorrow the dream becomes reality. Graduation ceremonies were held on December 20, 1980, and on May 16, 1981, at St. Joseph's Church.

EVALUATION

"We're together every day,
working, laughing,
learning from each other.
I've never felt closer to any friend,
never felt more needed."
